WHERE DID YOU SEE THIS PET:

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED THE FOLLOWING?

- Is this pet suited to your environment? ie are there young children, or other animals in your space.
- Does anyone in your home suffer from allergies?
- If you are renting, have you checked with your landlord about pet ownership?
- Does your council have limits on the number of animals in your dwelling?
- Owning a pet is a long term commitment. Can you go the distance?
- Do you travel often and for long periods? Who will look after your pet when you are away?
- Are you likely to move in the future and will owning a pet provide an obstacle to this process?
- Where will your pet be kept during the day? (Furry Friends cats are indoor cats only please)
- Can you afford vet costs and have you looked into pet insurance?
- Introducing animals to each other can be challenging and needs to be done gently, slowly and with some knowledge. Have you done your research?

YOUR AGREEMENT

- I understand that from the day I collect my adoptive pet, they are my financial responsibility.
- I agree to take my new pet to my own local vet for regular check ups commencing asap.
- Should my circumstances change and I need to re-home my adopted pet I will contact Furry Friends if I can't find a suitable home for my pet.
- I understand that vet certificates are posted to adopters approx 2-3 weeks after taking the pet home unless collecting pre-adopted pets from the vet on the day of desexing, in which case the vet will provide the certificates.
- I understand that a Furry Friends will be an alternative contact on the microchip so that if impounded and unclaimed the pet will return to Furry Friends.
- I will have the following supplies ready for my adoptive pet:
 - Cat carrier for cat trips (QLD Transport requirement)
 - Separate litter tray and litter
 - Recommended food
 - Bowls for water and food
 - Scratch posts and/or toys
 - Bedding
 - Flea and worm treatments
